Where Innovation Takes Flight

QUALITY,
INNOVATION,
& RELIABILITY

Adams Rite Aerospace

PROVEN TECHNOLOGY

Since the inclusion of our latches on the Douglas DC-3 in 1936, Adams Rite Aerospace parts have been included on nearly every commercial aircraft. Our products are internationally recognized for their quality in design, manufacturing and service.

But we don't believe in resting on our laurels. Every client, every problem, every day, we work hard to maintain our legacy of quality, innovation, and reliability.

A LEGACY OF SOLUTIONS

For over 80 years, Adams Rite has been designing and producing innovative, reliable, custom engineered components and systems for commercial, private and military aircraft. We manufacture many products, but we only create one thing: solutions.

CUSTOMIZED TO YOUR NEEDS

We offer versatile, customized solutions for your aerospace needs. Whether designing a fully tailored system or manufacturing an existing part in a unique material or aesthetic, we work to create the outcome that best solves your problem.
